139th Annual Commencement

December 19, 2015
The University Charter

The origins of Southern Illinois University Carbondale date to “An Act to Establish and Maintain the Southern Illinois Normal University” approved by the Illinois General Assembly on March 9, 1869.

The act defined the new university’s purpose as “to qualify teachers for the common schools of this state by imparting instruction in the art of teaching in all branches of study which pertain to a common school education in the elements of the natural sciences including agricultural chemistry, animal and vegetable physiology, in the fundamental laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois in regard to the rights and duties of citizens and such other studies as the board of education may from time to time prescribe.”

It included provisions for appointment of a Board of Trustees. One of the board’s first orders of business under the act would be to “advertise for proposals from localities desiring to secure the location of said Normal University.” The act required the board to “locate the institution at such point, as shall, all things considered, offer the most advantageous conditions. The land shall be selected south of the Railroad, or within six miles north of said road, passing from St. Louis to Terre Haute known as the Alton and Terre Haute railroad, with a view of obtaining a good supply of water and other conveniences for the use of the institution.”

The act defines how buildings would be constructed, as well as procedures for selecting students. It assigned a budget of $75,000 for construction of buildings and for furnishings.

The University Charter displayed on the stage today was bound by alumna Wendy Hale Davis, a bookbinder, artist and musician in Austin, Texas.

139th ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, a decorated staff carried in the commencement procession, is a symbol within a symbol. It denotes the right of the university administration to confer degrees on its graduates. Its place at the head of the SIU procession and carried by the recipient of the Scholar Excellence Award, who serves as the commencement Grand Marshal, conveys respect for the scholarship and dedication of the faculty.

The presence of a mace in ceremonial processions dates to the Middle Ages. The earliest maces were practical items, carried by sergeants-at-arms as part of the royal bodyguards’ means of protecting the king and as a symbol of his authority. In time, the mace was adapted to civic use and represented leadership. No longer a weapon, the mace became a work of art, decorated with precious metals and often bearing the seal of the city or university it represented.

Universities began incorporating a mace into their ceremonies as early as the 15th century. In the United States, most universities continue the tradition and incorporate a ceremonial mace into commencement exercises.

At SIU, the mace is very much a product of the university as well as representative of it. Professor Richard Smith, blacksmith and faculty member in the School of Art and Design, was commissioned to create a mace to debut in 2013. He turned to professor emeritus Richard Mawdsley, silversmith, to complete the project. He also enlisted the assistance of alumna Erin Dixon; assistant professor Sun Kyoung Kim; graduate student Patrick Quinn; and undergraduate students Timothy Schaeffer and Daniel Widolff – all from the School of Art and Design.

The mace, constructed of Damascus steel and silver, is 42 inches tall and 1¼ inches wide at its widest point. Design elements incorporate architectural references to Old Main – a campus building when SIU was the brand-new Southern Illinois Normal University, a teachers college, in 1874. Though Old Main was destroyed by fire in 1969, it holds a special place in the collective memory of the university.
Dear Members of the Class of 2015:

Congratulations on your outstanding accomplishments! This ceremony – our 139th commencement – is a special occasion that you will remember throughout your lives.

You and your fellow graduates came to campus from different backgrounds and with different perspectives. Think about how different you are today compared to when you first became a Saluki. Your experiences here have transformed your lives and prepared you to make positive contributions to the global society.

Today’s commencement ceremony represents yet another beginning. Perhaps you are planning to pursue your career, or continue your education. No matter the path you choose, I am confident that the skills you have gained, combined with your resourcefulness and commitment, will lead to a very bright future.

You are joining a network of 250,000 proud alumni whose many positive experiences here helped shape their future. Like them, I hope you will serve as a goodwill ambassador for your alma mater.

Our dedicated faculty and staff join me in thanking you for your many contributions to our university and in wishing you continued success.

Sincerely,

Brad Colwell
Interim Chancellor
ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn by faculty during commencement is based on attire from 12th- and 13th-century universities. Academic dress and accoutrements of this type have been used in the United States since colonial times. To maintain tradition and the conformity of academic symbols, little has changed in the symbolism of pattern and color since the Middle Ages. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission in the United States adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods and caps, which included regulating the cut, style and materials of gowns. In addition, colors, which were to represent the different fields of learning, were prescribed. Over the years, only minor revisions have been made to the code, which is followed by the majority of colleges and universities in America, including Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

GOWNS
The bachelor’s gown is a comparatively simple style that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke and has pointed sleeves. The master’s gown is similar to the bachelor’s except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor’s gown is elaborate, full-cut and flowing, and is distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and by three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves.

HOODS
Historically, the academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. Today, it is the identifying symbol of the degree, and the length indicates which degree it represents: 3½ feet for the master’s and 4 feet for the doctoral degree. Hoods are lined with the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The color of trimming identifies the major field of learning: maize for Agriculture, orange for Applied Sciences and Arts, brown for Architecture, drab for Business, light blue for Education, orange for Engineering, brown for Fine Arts, purple for Law, white for Liberal Arts, blue for Mass Communication and Media Arts, pink for Music, dark blue for Philosophy, peacock blue for Public Administration, salmon for Public Health, gold for Science and citron for Social Work.

CAPS AND TASSELS
The mortar board is the cap generally worn with academic regalia. A long tassel is fastened to the middle point on the top of the cap. The tassel is usually the color appropriate to the subject. There is no general rule on the position of the tassel on the mortar board. However, numerous institutions have adopted a practice of requiring candidates for degrees to wear the tassels on the right front side before degrees are conferred, and to shift them to the left side when the degrees are awarded to them.

STOLE OF GRATITUDE
Southern Illinois University Carbondale has incorporated the custom of the Stole of Gratitude since the 2012 commencement ceremony. This custom offers an opportunity for graduates to pay thanks to anyone who has helped them attend or excel in college. This stole is worn during the commencement ceremony or at another occasion where a presentation is appropriate. After the ceremony, the new graduate presents the Stole of Gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support.

GONFALONS
Another symbol used in commencement is the gonfalon. The gonfalon is a flag or banner that hangs from a crosspiece or frame. It originated in the medieval states of Italy as an ensign of state or office. The gonfalon is used in the Southern Illinois University Carbondale ceremony to designate the various colleges and schools of the institution. In the ceremony, the gonfalon for each college is carried by the student marshal for that college or school.

REFERENCE

We wish to acknowledge the extraordinary efforts of many dedicated staff members who have contributed to this special occasion for our students and their families.

Keynote Speaker

Jak Tichenor
Commencement Speaker

Jak Tichenor is a retired senior producer at WSIU-TV Carbondale, Illinois, the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) member station licensed to Southern Illinois University Carbondale. He joined the television station in 1991 after serving as news and public affairs director for WSIU Radio, SIU's National Public Radio (NPR) member station since 1981.

At WSIU-TV, Tichenor specialized in public affairs reporting and documentary television production for the station, as well as producing local political coverage and stories for the “InFocus” magazine series. His latest documentary, “P.S. Illinois, The Paul Simon Story,” aired across Illinois on public television in 2014. He was also heavily involved in on-air fundraising for the station.

Tichenor is the executive producer and host of the statewide “Illinois Lawmakers” series on the Illinois General Assembly for statewide Illinois public television, and has served as statehouse correspondent for the series since 1991. Since 1995 he has been lead producer for the Lincoln Academy of Illinois annual TV special distributed across Illinois and has interviewed many of Illinois’ outstanding laureates.

During nearly 10 years at WSIU Radio, Tichenor led the effort to create a professionally staffed public radio news department that included students in the SIU Department of Radio-Television and Digital Media. He earned reporting and documentary production awards from the Associated Press and United Press International while at WSIU Radio, and produced stories for NPR’s “All Things Considered,” “Morning Edition” and “Monitor Radio.”

He previously worked in commercial radio in southern Illinois and western Kentucky from 1971 to 1981 as an announcer, copywriter, music director and news reporter.

Tichenor also provides professional narration services and vocal characterizations for radio, television and digital media. Recent examples include “The Tragedy of Bataan” (2011, PBS) and “Never the Same” by professor Jan Thompson and the independent film “Cowboy Christmas” (2013) by associate professor H.D. Motyl, both of whom are in the SIU Carbondale Department of Radio-Television and Digital Media.

Tichenor holds a bachelor’s degree in radio-television and a master’s degree in public visual communications, both from SIU.

“The Star-Spangled Banner”

O say can you see,
By the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket’s red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780

“Southern Alma Mater”

Hail Alma Mater
Southern to thee
Strong thru the years you stand triumphant
Beacon to guide us
Over life’s sea
Light that can never fail us
Hail, Hail to thee

Lyrics and music by Grover Clarke Morgan
Written as a sophomore while attending
SIU Carbondale in 1934.

Candidates for Degrees

The following lists contain the names of candidates for degrees, the granting of which is contingent upon completion of all requirements for the degree.

(*) University Honors program member (undergraduate students only)
() Multiple degree candidate
(†) Posthumous degree
(•) Interdisciplinary degree

University Academic Honors listed to the right of the name are as follows for undergraduate students:
cum laude ................................................................. 3.5 – 3.749 magna cum laude .......................................................... 3.75 – 3.899 summa cum laude ........................................................ 3.9 – 4.0

The grade point averages above apply firstly to all work taken at Southern Illinois University Carbondale and then, in the case of transfer students, to the total work as an additional, but secondary, qualification.

Note

The list of graduates in this program is not intended to be an official certification of the completion of a degree. The diploma of Southern Illinois University Carbondale or an official transcript, signed by the appropriate officials, is the official record of graduation.

“\nThe next chapter of my life started after graduation, but my connection to SIU became even stronger. Networking, socializing and giving back through the Chicagoland Chapter of the SIU Alumni Association has continued to keep me connected and open doors as I’ve been building my career.”
Justin Harris, Bachelor of Science ’12, Master of Accountancy ’13
College of Business

Your membership includes:
- Four issues of SIU Alumni magazine, keeping you informed on campus news and alumni around the world
- Hundreds of discounts and special offers nationwide
- Opportunities to participate in alumni chapter, club and group events
- A library of professional development and career webinars

Unlock the full potential of your membership:
- Create a username and password at siualumni.com
- Update your personal information and start connecting with alumni via the Online Community Network
- Access your member advantages at siualumni.com/advantages
- Start connecting with your local chapter, club or group representative at siualumni.com/connect
- Give back as a university volunteer for on- and off-campus events. Register at siualumni.com/volunteer
