141st ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

MAY 13, 2017
The University Charter

The origins of Southern Illinois University Carbondale date to "An Act to Establish and Maintain the Southern Illinois Normal University" approved by the Illinois General Assembly on March 9, 1869.

The act defined the new university’s purpose as “to qualify teachers for the common schools of this state by imparting instruction in the art of teaching in all branches of study which pertain to a common school education in the elements of the natural sciences including agricultural chemistry, animal and vegetable physiology, in the fundamental laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois in regard to the rights and duties of citizens and such other studies as the board of education may from time to time prescribe.”

It included provisions for appointment of a Board of Trustees. One of the board’s first orders of business under the act would be to “advertise for proposals from localities desiring to secure the location of said Normal University.” The act required the board to “locate the institution at such point, as shall, all things considered, offer the most advantageous conditions. The land shall be selected south of the Railroad, or within six miles north of said road, passing from St. Louis to Terre Haute known as the Alton and Terre Haute railroad, with a view of obtaining a good supply of water and other conveniences for the use of the institution.”

The act defines how buildings would be constructed, as well as procedures for selecting students. It assigned a budget of $75,000 for construction of buildings and for furnishings.

The University Charter displayed on the stage today was bound by alumna Wendy Hale Davis, a bookbinder, artist and musician in Austin, Texas.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, a decorated staff carried in the commencement procession, is a symbol within a symbol. It denotes the right of the university administration to confer degrees on its graduates. Its place at the head of the SIU procession and traditionally carried by the recipient of the Scholar Excellence Award, who serves as the commencement Grand Marshal, conveys respect for the scholarship and dedication of the faculty.

The presence of a mace in ceremonial processions dates to the Middle Ages. The earliest maces were practical items, carried by sergeants-at-arms as part of the royal bodyguards’ means of protecting the king and as a symbol of his authority. In time, the mace was adapted to civic use and represented leadership. No longer a weapon, the mace became a work of art, decorated with precious metals and often bearing the seal of the city or university it represented.

Universities began incorporating a mace into their ceremonies as early as the 15th century. In the United States, most universities continue the tradition and incorporate a ceremonial mace into commencement exercises.

At SIU, the mace is very much a product of the university as well as representative of it. Professor Richard Smith, blacksmith and faculty member in the School of Art and Design, was commissioned to create a mace to debut in 2013. He turned to Professor Emeritus Richard Mawdsley, silversmith, to complete the project. He also enlisted the assistance of alumna Erin Dixon, assistant professor Sun Kyoung Kim, graduate student Patrick Quinn, and undergraduate students Timothy Schaeffer and Daniel Widolff – all from the School of Art and Design.

The mace, constructed of Damascus steel and silver, is 42 inches tall and 7¼ inches wide at its widest point. Design elements incorporate architectural references to Old Main – a campus building when SIU was the brand-new Southern Illinois Normal University, a teachers college, in 1874. Though Old Main was destroyed by fire in 1969, it holds a special place in the collective memory of the university.
Dear members of the Class of 2017:

Please accept my sincere congratulations on your accomplishments. This ceremony – our 141st commencement – is a milestone that you will remember throughout your lives.

You joined the SIU family to learn from our talented faculty and staff as well as your peers, to share your knowledge and talents, and to expand your horizons. Your experiences here have transformed your lives and prepared you to make positive contributions to our global society.

Much like your first day on campus, today’s ceremony represents yet another beginning – and the opportunity to make decisions about your next step in life. Regardless of the path you choose, the achievement of earning your degree will lead to exciting new pursuits that will be both challenging and rewarding – just as your SIU experience has been.

You are joining more than 250,000 proud alumni whose many positive experiences here helped shape their future. I hope that you will join them as a goodwill ambassador for your alma mater.

Thank you for your many contributions to SIU. Our faculty and staff join me in wishing you continued success. We look forward to learning of your many accomplishments as SIU alumni.

Sincerely,

Brad Colwell
Interim Chancellor
ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn by faculty during commencement is based on attire from 12th- and 13th-century universities. Academic dress and accoutrements of this type have been used in the United States since colonial times. To maintain tradition and the conformity of academic symbols, little has changed in the symbolism of pattern and color since the Middle Ages. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission in the United States adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods and caps, which included regulating the cut, style and materials of gowns. In addition, colors, which were to represent the different fields of learning, were prescribed. Over the years, only minor revisions have been made to the code, which is followed by the majority of colleges and universities in America, including Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

GOWNS

The bachelor’s gown is a comparatively simple style that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke and has pointed sleeves. The master’s gown is similar to the bachelor’s except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor’s gown is elaborate, full-cut and flowing, and is distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and by three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves.

HOODS

Historically, the academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. Today, it is the identifying symbol of the degree, and the length indicates which degree it represents: 3 1/2 feet for the master’s and 4 feet for the doctoral degree. Hoods are lined with the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The color of trimming identifies the major field of learning: maize for Agriculture, orange for Applied Sciences and Arts, brown for Architecture, drab for Business, light blue for Education, orange for Engineering, brown for Fine Arts, purple for Law, white for Liberal Arts, blue for Mass Communication and Media Arts, pink for Music, dark blue for Philosophy, peacock blue for Public Administration, salmon for Public Health, gold for Science and citron for Social Work.

CAPS AND TASSELS

The mortarboard is the cap generally worn with academic regalia. A long tassel is fastened to the middle point on the top of the cap. The tassel is usually the color appropriate to the subject. There is no general rule on the position of the tassel on the mortarboard. However, numerous institutions have adopted a practice of requiring candidates for degrees to wear the tassels on the right front side before degrees are conferred, and to shift them to the left side when the degrees are awarded to them.

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

Southern Illinois University Carbondale has incorporated the custom of the Stole of Gratitude since the 2012 commencement ceremony. This custom offers an opportunity for graduates to pay thanks to anyone who has helped them attend or excel in college. This stole is worn during the commencement ceremony or at another occasion where a presentation is appropriate. After the ceremony, the new graduate presents the Stole of Gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support.

GONFALONS

Another symbol used in commencement is the gonfalon. The gonfalon is a flag or banner that hangs from a crosspiece or frame. It originated in the medieval states of Italy as an ensign of state or office. The gonfalon is used in the Southern Illinois University Carbondale ceremony to designate the various colleges and schools of the institution. In the ceremony, the gonfalon for each college is carried by the student marshal for that college or school.

The Honorable Cheri Bustos
U.S. Representative
Keynote speaker 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Cheri Bustos considers it an honor to represent the hardworking families of Illinois’ 17th Congressional District which includes Western, Central and Northern Illinois. Now in her third term, Cheri has focused on job creation, strengthening our economy and building a stronger middle class.

As a Member of the House Agriculture Committee, she worked across the aisle to pass the first long-term Farm Bill in years. And through her service on the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, Cheri also worked to pass the first long-term highway bill in a decade so we can get Illinoisans back to work rebuilding our roads, bridges, rail lines, airports and waterways.

After the 2016 elections, Cheri was elected by her colleagues to serve in leadership as the Co-Chair of the Democratic Policy and Communications Committee. As the only Midwesterner elected to House Democratic Leadership, she is working to ensure that the House Democrats’ agenda connects with rural and working-class Americans. In 2015, Cheri accepted a leadership post as a Senior Whip, where she uses her position to fight for policies that will advance American manufacturing, ensure women’s economic security and grow our middle-class.

Born in Springfield, Illinois, Cheri Bustos grew up in a family that taught her the importance of hard work, caring for others and public service. While working as a young reporter in the Quad-Cities, Cheri met a rookie cop named Gerry Bustos who she fell in love with and married. With her husband Gerry, who now serves as the Sheriff of Rock Island County, she raised three sons and has two grandchildren, all of whom proudly call Illinois home. Throughout her career in journalism, Cheri used her pen to help her community. She uncovered numerous stories of corruption and greed in government, winning awards for her work on behalf of the public interest.

After a career in journalism, Bustos worked in health care before, during and after the passage of the Affordable Care Act for one of the nation’s largest non-denominational, non-profit health care systems. There, she helped families access affordable coverage and worked to improve the quality of health care available in the community.

Cheri has long been active in her community and served on numerous nonprofit boards and as the President of the Women’s Connection, one of Illinois’ largest women’s organizations. In 2007, Cheri’s commitment to public service and desire to further give back to the community led her to run for local office. Cheri was elected to serve on the City Council in East Moline for two terms and made her top priority economic development and building a stronger middle-class.

Cheri earned her Bachelor’s Degree in political science from the University of Maryland, College Park, and a Master’s Degree in journalism from the University of Illinois at Springfield. She also attended Illinois College in Jacksonville, where both her parents and son graduated. An accomplished basketball and volleyball player, Cheri was inducted into the Illinois College Sports Hall of Fame in 1994.
Keynote Speakers and Honored Guests

Era Eugene “Gene” Callahan
Posthumous Distinguished Service Award

Gene Callahan, one of four children, grew up on a farm in Milford, Ill. After graduating from high school, he attended and graduated in 1955 from Illinois College, where he majored in English and played baseball. He met his future wife, Ann Hammond of Ithaca, N.Y., while attending Illinois College. From 1956 to 1957, Callahan served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Germany.

The Callahans raised three children, Dan, Lynn and Cheri, in Springfield, Ill. Callahan worked to better the lives of the people of Illinois for more than 40 years, beginning with the decade he spent as a respected journalist with the Illinois State Register from 1957 to 1967. He then served as press secretary for Gov. Sam Shapiro and Lt. Gov. Paul Simon until 1972. In 1974, he began his long association with Alan Dixon when Dixon served as Illinois state treasurer and later as Illinois secretary of state. When Dixon moved to the U.S. Senate in 1981, Callahan became his chief of staff and most trusted political advisor. Callahan was a dedicated public servant who played an integral role behind the scenes in countless pieces of legislation and policies at the state and national levels.

A one-time aspiring sportswriter and a lifelong baseball fan, Callahan became the first director of government relations for Major League Baseball. In that position, which he held from 1992 to 1997, he led the MLB’s legislative and public affairs efforts with Congress.

Upon retirement, Callahan was appointed to the SIU Board of Trustees, serving from 2000 to 2004, and later became a founding member of the Board of Counselors for the Paul Simon Public Policy Institute at SIU Carbondale.

Callahan also was well known for his commitment to SIU baseball and helped host and organize annual fundraising events for the program in Springfield. His son, Dan, served as baseball coach at SIU from 1995 until his death in 2010, and Gene and Ann traveled the country to watch the Salukis play.

The family connection to SIU is very strong: Callahan’s late son, Dan, grandson Brad Ruppert and granddaughter Alexa Callahan all are graduates; granddaughter Carly Callahan is currently a student.

Callahan remained politically active throughout his lifetime, working behind the scenes as an advisor to many, including his daughter, U.S. Rep. Cheri Bustos, who has represented the 17th Congressional District of Illinois since 2013.

Gregory Cook
Distinguished Service Award

A Carbondale native and 1976 graduate of Carbondale Community High School, Greg Cook attended SIU Carbondale from 1977 to 1979, majoring in Aviation Technology and Business Administration. In December of 1979, Cook married his wife Nancy, also a Carbondale native, and left school to take a job as Nancy finished her degree in Elementary Education (’80).

In 1982, the Cooks moved to Houston, TX, and he enrolled at the University of Houston. Later that year, Cook was diagnosed with Hodgkin’s Lymphoma and returned to Carbondale for the support of family and friends while he underwent treatment.

In 1984, Cook and his father, John, co-founded Cook Portable Warehouses, which manufactures small residential storage buildings. Cook Portable Warehouses has production facilities in five states, and the buildings are sold through a network of more than 350 dealers in 15 states. Cook has served as the company’s president since his father’s death in 2005.

Cook and his family have been lifelong supporters of SIU. Seven family members hold degrees from the university. In addition, Nancy’s mother, Mary Lou Brown, served as an academic advisor at SIU from 1965 to 1988, and her father, Dr. Clyde Brown, taught Biology from 1951 until his death in 1965, representing more than 65 years of the family's connections to the University.

Cook's service to SIU includes membership on various steering committees, including “Southern at 150” and “Saluki Way”. As an avid supporter of Saluki Athletics, Cook has served on search committees for men's golf, women's basketball, men's basketball and football. Cook has been a member of the SIU Foundation Board of Directors since 2006, including serving as president from 2013 to 2015. He currently serves as the Foundation's representative to the SIU Alumni Association's Board of Directors. Cook also partners with SIU Athletics in raising money for the American Cancer Society in Southern Illinois.

In 2008, Cook and his wife Nancy donated $1 million to the Saluki Way project in honor of his late father. The “John Paul Cook Club” in the SIU Arena is named for his father.

An accomplished pilot, Cook uses his flying skills as a volunteer pilot for the Veterans Airlift Command, Special Olympics athletes for the Citation Special Olympics Airlift, and cancer patients to and from treatment centers for the Corporate Angel Network. His flights for SIU, also done on a volunteer basis, include transporting guest speakers, such as the secretary-general of the United Nations in December 2016, as well as the Flying Salukis, athletics coaches and the chancellor, in support of SIU throughout the country.

The Cooks live in in Makanda, IL. They have three children, seven grandchildren and are Life Members of the SIU Alumni Association.

Dorothy “Dede” Lingle Ittner
Distinguished Service Award

Dorothy (Dede) Lingle Ittner is a retired educator and life-long Saluki, with five generations of family having attended Southern Illinois University, including her father, the late SIU track and field coach Leland “Doc” Lingle ’27. Ittner graduated in 1961, along with her late husband, Bill. They had two daughters, De Lou De Jong and Sue Newell, both of whom became SIU alumna. Both daughters, along with her son, Rob Ittner, are life members of the Alumni Association.

Mrs. Ittner began her career teaching third grade in Jacksonville, IL, ultimately spending 29 years teaching for school districts in the Bloomington-Normal area, as well as Richland County. She was most recently an instructor of adult literacy and learning style assessment at John A. Logan College in Carterville, IL until her retirement in 2004.

Ittner takes great joy in sharing her love of and enthusiasm for SIU history with her family and the community. She has served on the Carbondale Preservation Commission for more than a decade and created the ongoing “Carbondale Remembered” oral history project for the Commission that is available online through Morris Library. Ittner is presently gathering materials chronicling the 120-year existence of the SIU Alumni Association with Special Collections in the library.

As a life member of the Association, Ittner has been active in the organization, serving as the Class of ’61 representative, as well as working with alumni chapters and clubs in Bloomington-Normal, Olney, and in Jackson and Williamson counties. Ittner joined the Association’s National Board of Directors in 2004 and continues to serve as its secretary. She is also active with the Student Alumni Council, the Association’s Registered Student Organization on campus.

Her other work includes service on various scholarship committees, the University Building Naming Committee, the Women’s Club of Carbondale, University School Reunion Committee, and the Half-Century Club Committee, which honors yearly alumni returning to campus for their 50-year reunion.

Ittner also helped establish the Lingle/Ittner Memorial Endowment Award, given annually through the College of Education and Human Services.
Dr. Susan McClary
Doctorate of Music Arts

(B Mus, SIU; PhD, Harvard) is Professor of Music at Case Western Reserve University; she has also held professorship at the University of Minnesota, McGill University, UCLA, and University of Oslo. Her research focuses on the cultural analysis of music, both the European canon and contemporary popular genres. In contrast with an aesthetic tradition that treats music as ineffable and transcendent, her work engages with the signifying dimensions of musical procedures and deals with this elusive medium as a set of social practices. Best known for her book “Feminine Endings: Music, Gender, and Sexuality” (1991), she is also author of “Georges Bizet: Carmen” (1992), “Conventional Wisdom: The Content of Musical Form” (2000), “Modal Subjectivities: Renaissance Self-Fashioning in the Italian Madrigal” (2004), “Reading Music: Selected Essays” (2007), “Desire and Pleasure in Seventeenth-Century Music” (2012), and editor of “Structures of Feeling in Seventeenth-Century Expressive Culture” (2012).

Her work has been translated into at least twenty languages, and she has advised more than fifty dissertations. McClary received a MacArthur Foundation “Genius” Fellowship in 1995. She is now completing a book titled “The Passions of Peter Sellars: Staging Music Drama.”

General Larry O. Spencer, USAF (RET)
Doctorate of Public Service
Keynote Speaker 5:30 p.m.

As the Air Force Association’s top executive, General Spencer directs the association’s professional staff. He is responsible for the management and operations of AFA, AFA Veteran Benefits Association, and the Air Force Memorial Foundation. He also holds the position of publisher of Air Force Magazine, the official journal of the Air Force Association, which has approximately 94,000 members. Spencer is also a Board Director for Whirlpool Corp.

Retiring as a four-star general, Spencer spent over 40 years in the Air Force. His last assignment was as the Vice Chief of Staff of the US Air Force, Washington, DC. In this capacity, Spencer was the second highest-ranking military member in the Air Force. He presided over the Air Staff and served as a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Requirements Oversight Council and Deputy Management Advisory Group. He assisted the Chief of Staff of the Air Force with organizing, training, and equipping 690,000 active-duty, Guard, Reserve, and civilian forces serving in the United States and overseas.

Spencer began his career in the enlisted ranks and rose to become a four-star general. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in industrial engineering technology from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. Spencer was commissioned through Officer Training School in 1980 as a distinguished graduate. He has commanded a squadron, group and wing, and he was Vice Commander of the Oklahoma City Air Logistics Center. He was also the first Air Force officer to serve as the Assistant Chief of Staff in the White House Military Office. He served as the Chief Financial Officer and then Director of Mission Support at a major command; and held positions within the Air Staff and Secretariat. Prior to his assignment as Vice Chief of Staff, the general was Director, Force Structure, Resources and Assessment, Joint Staff, the Pentagon, Washington, DC where he worked directly for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

General Spencer participated in contingency Operations Desert Shield/Storm, Desert Thunder, Desert Fox, Allied Force, and Iraqi Freedom. Spencer has a Master of Science degree in business management from Webster College, and a Master of Science degree in industrial resource strategy from the National Defense University. He also completed post-graduate courses at Harvard University, and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Larry and his wife, Ora, reside in Alexandria, Virginia.

TO EXALT BEAUTY
IN GOD,
IN NATURE,
AND IN ART,
TEACHING HOW TO LOVE THE BEST
BUT TO KEEP THE HUMAN TOUCH:

TO ADVANCE LEARNING
IN ALL LINES OF TRUTH
WHEREVER THEY MAY LEAD,
SHOWING HOW TO THINK
RATHER THAN WHAT TO THINK,
ASSISTING THE POWERS OF THE MIND
IN THEIR SELF-DEVELOPMENT:

TO FORWARD IDEAS
AND IDEALS
IN OUR DEMOCRACY,
INSPIRING RESPECT FOR OTHERS
AS FOR OURSELVES,
EVER PROMOTING FREEDOM
WITH RESPONSIBILITY:

TO BECOME A CENTER OF
ORDER AND LIGHT
THAT KNOWLEDGE MAY LEAD
TO UNDERSTANDING
AND UNDERSTANDING TO WISDOM.
“The Star-Spangled Banner”

O say can you see,
By the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket’s red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780

Candidates for Degrees

The following lists contain the names of candidates for degrees, the granting of which is contingent upon completion of all requirements for the degree.

* University Honors program member (undergraduate students only)
Multiple degree candidate
† Posthumous degree
‡ Interdisciplinary degree

University Academic Honors listed to the right of the name are as follows for undergraduate students:

cum laude .................................................................3.5–3.749 magna cum laude.........................................................3.75–3.899 summa cum laude........................................................3.9–4.0

The grade point averages above apply firstly to all work taken at Southern Illinois University Carbondale and then, in the case of transfer students, to the total work as an additional, but secondary, qualification.

Notes

- The list of graduates in this program is not intended to be an official certification of the completion of a degree. The diploma of Southern Illinois University Carbondale or an official transcript, signed by the appropriate officials, is the official record of graduation.
- August and December graduates are published in the December commencement program.

WHY JOIN THE SIU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION?

HAIL ALMA MATER SOUTHERN TO THEE

Joining your SIU Alumni Association is a show of support and loyalty to Southern. We welcome and value all alumni, students and friends who love SIU. Membership is the easiest way to give back.

TRADITION STRONG THRU THE YEARS

The memories and experiences of alumni are the interwoven threads in the tapestry of Southern’s story. We carry forward and share their traditions, for in this legacy and history a strong future was born. Share your stories with us.

BEACON TO GUIDE US

Enthusiasm never runs short whenever and wherever Salukis gather. Dozens of chapters and clubs nationwide, as well as several alumni groups, are open for you to share in this pride. Let it show at our events afar and when you return to campus for Homecoming.

OPPORTUNITY LIGHT THAT CAN NEVER FAIL US

You are a connection that builds the SIU network and reputation, a link to opportunities for fellow alumni and students. Your membership contributes to more than $150,000 in scholarships each year and helps us professionally connect students in their chosen career paths.

WELCOME TO THE SIU ALUMNI FAMILY

Redeem a one-year complimentary membership in the SIU Alumni Association, our gift to you!
