CARBONDALE

THE UNIVERSITY CHARTER

The origins of Southern Illinois University Carbondale date to “An Act to Establish and Maintain the Southern Illinois Normal University” approved by the Illinois General Assembly on March 9, 1869.

The Act defined the new university’s purpose as “to qualify teachers for the common schools of this state by imparting instruction in the art of teaching in all branches of study which pertain to a common school education in the elements of the natural sciences including agricultural chemistry, animal and vegetable physiology, in the fundamental laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois in regard to the rights and duties of citizens and such other studies as the board of education may from time to time prescribe.”

It included provisions for appointment of a Board of Trustees. One of the Board’s first orders of business under the act would be to “advertise for proposals from localities desiring to secure the location of said Normal University.” The Act required the Board to “locate the institution at such point, as shall, all things considered, offer the most advantageous conditions. The land shall be selected south of the Railroad, or within six miles north of said road, passing from St. Louis to Terre Haute known as the Alton and Terre Haute railroad, with a view of obtaining a good supply of water and other conveniences for the use of the institution.”

The Act defines how buildings would be constructed as well as procedures for selecting students. It assigned a budget of $75,000 for construction of buildings and for furnishings.

The University Charter displayed on the stage today was bound by alumna Wendy Hale Davis of Austin, Texas, a bookbinder, artist and musician.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, a decorated staff carried in the commencement procession, is a symbol within a symbol. Above all, the mace is a symbol of authority: It denotes the right of the University administration to confer degrees on its graduates. Its place at the head of the SIU procession and carried by the recipient of the Scholar Excellence Award, who serves as the commencement Grand Marshal, is a mark of respect for the scholarship and dedication of the faculty.

The presence of a mace in ceremonial processions dates to the Middle Ages. The earliest maces were practical items, carried by Sergeants-at-Arms as part of the royal bodyguards' means to protect the king and as a symbol of his authority. In time, the mace was adapted to civic use, and represented leadership. No longer a weapon, the mace became a work of art, decorated with precious metals and often bearing the seal of the city or university it represented.

Universities began incorporating a mace into their ceremonies as early as the 15th century. In the United States, most universities continue the tradition and incorporate a ceremonial mace into commencement exercises.

At SIU, the mace is imbued with added significance. Chancellor Rita Cheng commissioned Professor Richard Smith, blacksmith and faculty member in the School of Art and Design, to create a mace to debut in 2013. Professor Smith turned to Professor Emeritus Richard Mawdsley, silversmith, to complete the project. He also enlisted the assistance of alumna Erin Dixon; Assistant Professor Sun Kyoung Kim; graduate student Patrick Quinn; and undergraduate students Timothy Schaeffer and Daniel Widolff – all from the School of Art and Design. The mace, then, is very much a product of the University as well as representative of it.

The mace, constructed of Damascus steel and silver, is 42 inches tall and 1 ¼ inches wide at its widest point. Design elements of the piece incorporate architectural references to Old Main, a campus building when SIU was then the brand new Southern Illinois Normal University, a teacher's college, in 1874. Though the Old Main building was destroyed by fire in 1969, it holds a special place in the collective memory of the University, resonating even with those who have come to campus long after the building was gone.

Dear Graduates:

On behalf of Southern Illinois University Carbondale, please accept my heartfelt congratulations on your accomplishments. This – our 137th commencement – is truly a special occasion, one that you will remember throughout your lives.

We appreciate your trust, and that of your families, in the abilities and commitment of our dedicated faculty and staff to help you attain your educational goals. They have shared their time and their expertise to challenge, mentor and encourage you because they are passionate about your success.

Each of you came to campus from different backgrounds and with different perspectives. But you also came here with a desire to learn and to grow. What you found was an educational experience that has prepared you for success in your careers – and in life.

Much like the first day you set foot on campus, today represents yet another beginning. Some of you will embark on a career. Others among you may continue your education. Regardless of the path you choose, I am confident that with the skills you have learned, combined with your talent, resourcefulness, and commitment, big things will always be within reach.

You are joining a network of 245,000 proud alumni whose many positive experiences here helped shape their future. I hope you will continue to serve as a goodwill ambassador for your University.

Enjoy this moment, and celebrate with family and friends. You have earned it!

My best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Rita Cheng
Chancellor

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn by faculty during commencement is based on attire from the 12th- and 13-century universities. Academic dress and accouterments of this type have been used in the United States since colonial times. To maintain tradition and the conformity of academic symbols, little has changed in the symbolism of pattern and color since the Middle Ages. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission in the U.S. adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulating the cut, style, and materials of gowns. In addition, colors, which were to represent the different fields of learning, were prescribed. Over the years, only minor revisions have been made to the code, which is followed by the majority of colleges and universities in America, including Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

GOWNS

The bachelor's gown is a comparatively simple style that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke and has pointed sleeves. The master's gown is similar to the bachelor's except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor's gown is elaborate, full-cut and flowing, and is distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck and by three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves.

HOODS

Historically, the academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. Today, it is the identifying symbol of the degree and the length indicates which degree it represents: three and a half feet for the master's and four feet for the doctoral degree. Hoods are lined with the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The color of trimming identifies the major field of learning: Maize for Agriculture, Orange for Applied Sciences and Arts, Brown for Architecture, Drab for Business, Light Blue for Education, Orange for Engineering, Brown for Fine Arts, Purple for Law, White for Liberal Arts, Blue for Mass Communication and Media Arts, Pink for Music, Dark Blue for Philosophy, Peacock Blue for Public Administration, Salmon for Public Health, Gold for Science, and Citron for Social Work.

CAPS AND TASSELS

The mortar board is the cap generally worn with academic regalia. A long tassel is fastened to the middle point on the top of the cap. The tassel is usually the color appropriate to the subject. There is no general rule on the position of the tassel on the mortar board. However, numerous institutions have adopted a practice of requiring candidates for degrees to wear the tassels on the right front side before degrees are conferred and to shift them to the left side when the degrees are awarded to them.

Agricultural Sciences, Maize
Applied Sciences and Arts, Orange
Business, Drab
Education & Human Services, Light Blue
Engineering, Orange
Liberal Arts, White
Mass Communication and Media Arts, Blue
Social Work, Citron
Science, Gold
Masters, Black
PhD, Gold
JD, Purple

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

Southern Illinois University Carbondale has incorporated the custom of the Stole of Gratitude since the 2012 commencement ceremony. This custom offers an opportunity for graduates to pay thanks to anyone who has helped them attend or excel in college. This stole is worn during the commencement ceremony or at another occasion where a presentation is appropriate. After the ceremony, the new graduate presents the Stole of Gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support.

GONFALONS

Another symbol used in commencement is the gonfalon. The gonfalon is a flag or banner that hangs from a crosspiece or frame. It originated in the medieval states of Italy as an ensign of state or office. The gonfalon is used in the Southern Illinois University Carbondale ceremony to designate the various colleges and schools of the institution. In the ceremony, the gonfalon for each college is carried by the student marshal for that college or school.

We wish to acknowledge the extraordinary efforts of many dedicated staff members who have contributed to this special occasion for our students and their families.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Frank Abagnale

Frank W. Abagnale is one of the world's most respected authorities on forgery, embezzlement and secure documents. For over 30 years he has worked with, advised and consulted with hundreds of financial institutions, corporations and government agencies around the world.

Mr. Abagnale's rare blend of knowledge and expertise began more than 40 years ago when he was known as one of the world's most famous con men. This was depicted most graphically in his best-selling book, Catch Me If You Can, a film of which was also made, directed by Steven Spielberg with Leonardo DiCaprio and Tom Hanks. The Tony-Award winning musical, Catch Me if You Can, directed by multiple award winner Jack O' Brien, opened on Broadway at the Neil Simon Theatre in April 2011.

Between the ages of 16 and 21, he successfully posed as an airline pilot, an attorney, a college professor and a pediatrician, in addition to cashing $2.5 million in fraudulent checks in every state and 26 foreign countries. Apprehended by the French police when he was 21 years old, he served time in the French, Swedish and U. S. prison systems. After five years he was released on the condition that he would help the federal government, without remuneration, by teaching and assisting federal law enforcement agencies.

Mr. Abagnale has now been associated with the FBI for over 30 years. More than 14,000 financial institutions, corporations and law enforcement agencies use his fraud prevention programs. In 1998 he was selected as a distinguished member of "Pinnacle 400" by CNN Financial News – a select group of 400 people chosen on the basis of great accomplishment and success in their fields.

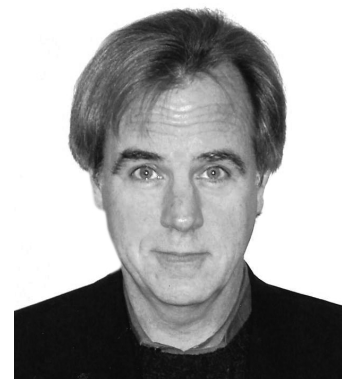

In 2004 Mr. Abagnale was selected as the spokesperson for the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) and the National Cyber Security Alliance (NCSA). He has also written numerous articles and books including The Art of the Steal, The Real U Guide to Identity Theft and Stealing Your Life.

HONORED GUESTS

Robert L. Murphy, Doctorate of Humanities Recipient

Robert L. Murphy is the John Philip Phair Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, and professeur Associé de Recherche at Pierre et Marie Curie Université in Paris, France. An Evanston native, Murphy earned a bachelor's degree in geography from SIU in 1974, and is a life member of the SIU Alumni Association. Murphy earned an Artium Baccalaureatus (AB) degree in biology from Boston University, and a Doctor of Medicine (MD) degree from Loyola University Stritch School of Medicine in 1978. He completed his internship, residency, and fellowship in infectious diseases at McGaw Medical Center, Northwestern University. Affiliated with Northwestern University since 1978, Murphy became a Professor of Medicine there in 1999. His primary research and clinical interest is viral infections. His research includes drug development for antiretroviral treatments and vaccines for HIV and viral hepatitis and the scale-up of therapy for AIDS, tuberculosis, and malaria in sub-Saharan Africa. His support for AIDS prevention training for U. S. Peace Corps physicians active in West Africa dates to the early 1990s, and he founded and continues to direct the International AIDS Education Project. Murphy has been instrumental in establishing more than 40 AIDS clinics in Africa. He is also the recipient of two Fogarty International Research Collaboration Awards from the National Institutes of Health. These awards promote international research partnerships between scientists in the United States and in countries in the developing world.

Ella M. Phillips Lacey, Distinguished Service Award Recipient

Ella M. Phillips Lacey earned her bachelor's degree in psychology in 1964, a master's degree in rehabilitation and human services in 1972, and a doctorate in education in 1979, all from SIU. Her 22-year professional career at SIU began in 1972 as a field coordinator/instructor for the School of Medicine. She was promoted to assistant professor then associate professor, and taught medical interviewing and community health to all first-year medical students and conducted research on pica and smoking education. She also served as coordinator of the School's Office of Community Health Program Development. In addition, she was cross-appointed to the College of Education, Department of Health Education. In her early years of service at SIU, Lacey led the development and implementation of a plan that improved emergency medical and ambulance services in southern Illinois. She retired from SIU in 1994, then joined the Peace Corps in 1995 and became a volunteer Child Survival Specialist in Zomba, Malawi (Africa). After the Peace Corps, Lacey was a volunteer English teacher at SIU in Nakajo, Japan. It was during this assignment that she was recruited as a Worldwide Polio Eradication Program volunteer, traveling three times to northern India and once each to Ghana, Ethiopia, Egypt, and Sierra Leone. Since 2008, Lacey's international service has continued mainly in conjunction with Rotary International and her local club in the interest of water and sanitation, including assignments in Kenya and twice back to Malawi. Efforts related to children's orthopedic impairments have necessitated trips for needs assessments in Belize, Honduras, and Cuba. Her local efforts include being a longtime daily volunteer associate with the "I Can Read" afterschool program, and in organizations such as Women for Health and Wellness, AAUW, NAACP, Boys and Girls Club of Carbondale and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Pamela K. Pfeffer, Distinguished Service Award Recipient

Pamela K. Pfeffer has been actively involved with SIU for more than four decades. A Metropolis native, she earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics from SIU in 1967. Her grandfather, the late Lindell Sturgis, was a key figure in the University's growth -- serving on the SIU Board of Trustees for 30 years, including board chair from 1969 to 1971. Together with her husband, Philip, the couple established an endowment to fund the Lindell W. Sturgis Memorial Public Service Award, which annually recognizes the contributions of an SIU Carbondale employee to their community, area, state or nation. She began serving on the SIU Foundation Board in 1995 and served two terms as board president. She is a life member of the SIU Alumni Association, the Paul and Virginia Society, and has served on boards for the SIU Alumni Association, SIU Foundation, and College of Liberal Arts. After earning a master's degree in teaching mathematics from Vanderbilt University in 1968, Pfeffer began her career in the banking industry as a lending officer and branch manager at Third National Bank. She is the author of "The Essential Home Record Book -- Ready-to-Use Forms for All Your Personal, Medical, Household, and Financial Information," and has also written articles including, "Are 24 Hours Not Enough?" and "Be a Woman with a Mission." She has been previously and is currently actively involved in serving on many non-profit boards, including The Nashville Symphony Association and Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville. She is also a board member and corporate secretary for Treemont Capital, Inc., and actively involved in many of the investments held by Treemont Capital.

Philip M. Pfeffer, Distinguished Service Award Recipient

Philip M. Pfeffer is president and CEO of Nashville-based Treemont Capital, Inc., a private equity investment company specializing in newspaper and magazine publishing, web-based data management, reverse logistics, and other industries. He is a two-degree graduate of SIU, earning a bachelor's degree in mathematics and chemistry in 1965 and a master's degree in economics in 1966. He completed postgraduate studies in economics at Vanderbilt University from 1966 to 1968 as a National Science Foundation Fellow. Among his SIU honors, Pfeffer received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters in 1997, the SIU Distinguished Alumni Award in 1998, and Alumni Achievement Award in 1992. He was keynote speaker at the Saluki Innovation Lab debut in October 2011. He is a life member of the SIU Alumni Association, the Paul and Virginia Society, and has served on boards for the SIU Alumni Association, SIU Foundation, and College of Liberal Arts. Pfeffer was president, chief operating officer, director, and executive committee member for Random House from 1996 to 1998, and chairman of the board and CEO of Nashville-based Ingram Distribution Group, Inc., from 1977 to 1996. He was also executive vice president, member of the board of directors, and served on the executive committee of Ingram Industries, Inc., the parent company of the Ingram Distribution Group. He was an instructor in finance and economics at the University of Tennessee in Nashville from 1968 to 1977, and a lecturer in corporate finance at Vanderbilt University from 1972 to 1977.

The message contained in this document is displayed on the south wall of the Morris Library's Hall of Presidents and Chancellors, and has a special place in the hearts of our students and alumni. We share it with you today:

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS
UNIVERSITY
ESTABLISHED 1869

TO EXALT BEAUTY

IN GOD,

IN NATURE,

AND IN ART,

TEACHING HOW TO LOVE THE BEST

BUT TO KEEP THE HUMAN TOUCH:

TO ADVANCE LEARNING

IN ALL LINES OF TRUTH

WHEREVER THEY MAY LEAD,

SHOWING HOW TO THINK

RATHER THAN WHAT TO THINK,

ASSISTING THE POWERS

OF THE MIND

IN THEIR SELF-DEVELOPMENT:

TO FORWARD IDEAS

AND IDEALS

IN OUR DEMOCRACY,

INSPIRING RESPECT FOR OTHERS

AS FOR OURSELVES,

EVER PROMOTING FREEDOM

WITH RESPONSIBILITY:

TO BECOME A CENTER OF

ORDER AND LIGHT

THAT KNOWLEDGE MAY LEAD

TO UNDERSTANDING

AND UNDERSTANDING

TO WISDOM.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780

ALMA MATER

Hail Alma Mater
Southern to thee
Strong thru the years you stand triumphantly
Beacon to guide us
Over life's sea
Light that can never fail us
Hail, Hail to thee

Lyrics and Music by Grover Clarke Morgan
written as a Sophomore while attending
SIU Carbondale in 1934.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

The following lists contain the names of candidates for degrees, the granting of which is contingent upon successful completion of all requirements for the degree.

- (*) University Honors program member (undergraduate students only)
- (**) Multiple degree candidate
- (+) Posthumus degree
- (§) Interdisciplinary degree

University Academic Honors listed to the right of the name are as follows for undergraduate students:

cum laude .....	3.500–3.749
magna cum laude .....	3.750–3.899
summa cum laude .....	3.900–4.000

The grade point averages above apply firstly to all work taken at Southern Illinois University Carbondale and then in the case of transfer students, to the total work as an additional, but secondary qualification.

Note

The list of graduates in this program is not intended to be an official certification of the completion of a degree. The diploma of Southern Illinois University Carbondale or an official transcript, signed by the appropriate officials, is the official record of graduation.

CONGRATULATIONS... AND WELCOME!

Stay connected to your University and more than 245,000 alumni. Become a member of the SIU Alumni Association. Whether it is networking opportunities, career webinars, or simply keeping up with the great things happening on campus, "Salukis helping Salukis" will be a powerful tool for you to use as you shape your career.

GRAD TO-DO LIST...

- Update your address at www.sialumni.com/update.
- Maintain your connections through Association membership.
- Connect with Salukis wherever your life adventure takes you. It's easy with Association chapters, clubs, and online community network.
- Take advantage of access to discounts on job prep services, webinars for career success, and invitations to special events.
- Pay it forward! Assist the University by volunteering at events and by recruiting and mentoring students.

TOGETHER, WE ARE UNSTOPPABLE.
